Dear General Clark:

This will confirm our telephone conversation of October 26th, and I am delighted that you and the members of your Committee, with General Christiansen, will be able to have dinner at my home on November 3rd at 7:30 p.m. The address is 3825 Wisconsin Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.

It was kind of you to agree to extend the invitation to Mr. Russell and Mr. Hollings, and I have asked General Christiansen to do the same in the cases of Admiral Conolly and Mr. Rickenbacker.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
